

Hello Oak Grove Students,

Hope you are reading every day. Reading is the key to your education. I would like to know about your favorite books. Could you please write down the title of your favorite book with a paragraph stating why you liked it? When students ask me what I would recommend, I would like to tell them which books you would recommend. If you liked a book, then I'm sure other students would.

Be sure to check out Sora on the district web site. It will give you thousands of books to read online.

1. Click on School Closure Student Resource Hub
2. Where it says Sora click on the link at the bottom to learn how to log onto Sora. Maybe try a book or two, then go back and click on the other link to learn how to log onto Marmot Library District. Once you have signed into Marmot you will see that you now have access to thousands of books.

Don't forget to take the AR test after you read a book.

Speaking of books look below.
